S-S-SLITHE
IS BACK!

THE CATS' LAIR

OUR COVER SAYS IT ALL – S-S-SLITHE IS BACK, AND HE'S BACK WITH A VENGEANCE! When the Thundercats and the Mutants last clashed, S-S-Slithe and his followers were sent scurrying away in abject defeat. Since then the Thundercats have thwarted another of Mumm-Ra's evil schemes and finished work on an aqueduct that will provide them and the Berbils with a constant supply of water. Now we find them celebrating the aqueduct's completion, unaware that S-S-Slithe and his allies are continuing to plot their destruction! In our back-up strip, the Snarks' plot to take Power Pack back to their home has ended in failure. The four Power children have successfully rescued their parents and escaped from the Snarks' spaceship in the Kymellian smartship, Friday. Or have they? Find out on page 18!

BIG NEWS FOR SMALL THUNDERCATS FANS!

First we gave you the fantastic free prismatic badge on the cover of issue one. You loved it but you wanted more. So we followed it up with the terrific Panini sticker album and stickers in issues two and three. You loved them but you still wanted more. So we came up with the tremendous THUNDERCATS videos competition in issue four – we gave away 35 copies of the very latest THUNDERCATS videos and you STILL wanted more. So we got together with Rainbow Toys for the amazing Thundertank competition in issue five – we gave away six THUNDERCATS Thundertanks and thirty-six THUNDERCATS figures and you STILL wanted more! So we took a rest. You may have thought that we'd just forgotten you but now, ten issues later, we're prepared to reveal that in just seven days time, we'll be giving you the opportunity to win one of a HUNDRED THUNDERCATS miniatures. You may have already seen the fabulous Amacus Toys THUNDERCATS miniatures in the shops – they're brilliant for battle because they're pocket-sized and portable. Next issue you'll be able to win one of six THUNDERCATS characters available in the range – Lion-O, Panthro, Tygra, Cheetara, Tuska Warrior and Hachi-man – and all it'll cost you to enter is the price of a second class stamp. We spoil you, we really do.

THUNDER-CHAT

Dear Snarf,
I used to collect THE TRANSFORMERS comic but that got boring so as soon as I saw THUNDERCATS I bought that instead. I think it's a pretty good read for 32p – I've got all the THUNDERCATS comics so far, and I've filled my sticker album now. Can you tell me if Lion-O is the biggest of all the Thundercats?
Paul Gooding,
Derby.

Good to know you're such a loyal reader, Paul, but my terrestrial helpers have asked me to point out that you shouldn't give up on THE TRANSFORMERS completely – perhaps the most epic TRANSFORMERS storyline ever is unfolding in the pages of Marvel's (second) greatest comic at the moment and, if you pick up the latest issue, you'll just be in time for an episode entitled 'Fire on High!' As to the answer to your question, Paul, it's a simple one – Yes, Lion-O is the biggest of the Thundercats. And before anyone asks, Yes, I'm the smallest!

Dear THUNDERCATS,
AT LAST! Television's greatest heroes in their own comic! Everytime THUNDERCATS comes on T.V. I sit in my armchair and bang my feet on the ground or jump up and down until it finishes and then shout out THUNDERCATS!
My Dad doesn't like me buying THUNDERCATS stickers but I creep out to the newsagent's and buy them with the pocket money he gives me.
Mandeep Mann,
No Address Supplied.

Don't worry, Mandeep, I won't tell anybody, Snarf! Snarf!

Dear Thunder-Chat,
When I saw the first issue of THUNDERCATS in the shops I grabbed it and thought it well worth 32p. My favourite Thundercat is Lion-O, the hereditary leader of the Thundercats. I would really like the Sword of Omens for my birthday. Do you think that you will have a THUNDERCATS swaps column?
Renuka Perera,
Chelmsford.

As we mentioned a few weeks ago, Renuka, Thundercats readers are very welcome to send in details of any swaps they'd like to make, as long as they take note of the following points: 1. State what it is you want. 2. State what you have to swap. 3. State your full name and address. 4. Mark your envelope SNARF'S SWAPS. Finally, under no circumstances whatsoever send any toys or money to my terrestrial helpers here at Marvel – they cannot be held responsible for the loss or return of any items or money.

Dear THUNDERCATS,
I have got all the issues of your comic so far – it really is the best comic Marvel produce. I'd just like to say that Power Pack is every bit as good as the THUNDERCATS strip. I am going into hospital for a heart operation soon and I'll be sure to take a few copies of your brilliant comic in with me.
Gary Lowe,
Surrey.

Sorry to hear you're having to go into hospital, Gary. All the Thundercats and all the people at Marvel wish you all the very best and a speedy recovery from your operation.

Dear Snarf,
I'd like to tell you about my cat, Tiger. I call him Tiger because he resembles Tygra in a way – everytime I go looking for him he disappears! It's no trouble finding him on a Thursday though, because he's always glued to the T.V. set watching THUNDERCATS. Mind you, as soon as it's finished he disappears again!
Neil Grossley,
Newcastle-Upon-Tyne.

Hmmm... I'm not too sure about the idea of gluing cats to T.V. sets – I mean it must make it difficult to see the picture, Snarf! Snarf!
