THE CATS' LAIR

A RAT IN CATS' CLOTHING! That's Pumm-Ra, the latest disguise of dastardly devil-priest Mumm-Ra the Ever Living, and cornerstone of his latest plot to finally destroy the Thundercats! Last issue we saw Pumm-Ra successfully sabotage Cat-Lord's moving of Thundercats to the promised land. He stole the Sword of Omens and threatened to use it to bring about the end of the story as Pumm-Ra now prepares to use the Sword for his own evil ends. Just how powerful are the Thundercats without their greatest symbol of strength? And how will they cope when it's used against them? Find out in part two of Pumm-Ra! New from Rainbow Toys this year is Safari Jo, intergalactic big game hunter, and star of this week's Mini-Poster feature. Among the first at the local toyshop should be John Lloyd of Surrey and Gordon Winch of Dundee, who requested that particular Marvel masterwork. The Great Goo-Gam Treasure Hunt comes to a timely conclusion on page 18, doing all concerned a Power of good! But who are the tall, reptilian-looking characters with a disturbing number of teeth on page 22? We dare you to find out! Just room to mention that the relationship of One Cat And His Cod deepens into open hostility on page 23, as Bjorn and Dave try their fins and paws at a little magic – with less than enchanting results! THUNDERCATS 45 – every home should have one!

Cat's Lair is under attack - from within! Mumm-Ra, the Thundercats' arch-enemy, lulls them into a false sense of security when he disguises himself as a long-lost survivor from the Cats' home planet of Thundera - Pumm-Ra! Wrecking the Lair's defensive systems, he prepares to use the Sword of Omens for his own evil ends...
